BEST FOR THE HURRIED MAN.

He hurried when he ate his meals.
He hurried when he combed his hair:
He hurried when the days were dark,
And also when the days were fair.
He hurried on his way to work,
He hurried even when he played.
But, going with his wife to Church,
His progress was but slowly made.

He removed from Maysville to Cincinnati about 17 years ago, where he and his brother, Frank, were established in the drug business by their deceased uncle, W. S. Frank, and to his close attention to business can largely be attributed his early death.

He was a Christian gentleman, and his untimely taking off will be mourned here at his old home by a large circle who loved him for his nobility of character and goodness of heart. A mother and brother survive.

He was a nephew of Mr. Charles H. Frank and Mrs. Alice Richeson.

The remains arrived here this morning and the funeral took place from the Christian Church, of which he was an exemplary member, with services by Rev. Homer Carpenter.

IN Chicago Judge LANDIS of the United States District Court gave his decision in the controversy between the adherents of JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE and WILBUR VOLIVA over the property at Zion City.

The Court holds that Zion City and its industries do not belong to DOWIE; that, while the contributors of the funds did not express a formal declaration of trust, a trust was created, and DOWIE had no right to treat the property as his own.

The Court refused to appoint ALEXANDER GRANGER Receiver and orders an election.

Discussing the claim of VOLIVA that GRANGER be continued in charge, the Court says:

"Some time ago GRANGER took a vow, from which I quote the following—'I vow in the name of God my Father, and of JESUS CHRIST, his son and my Savior, and the Holy Ghost, that I recognize JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE, general overseer in his three-fold prophetic office as a messenger of the Covenant, the prophet foretold by MOSES and ELIJAH the restorer; and I promise to obey all rightful orders issued by him, and that all family ties and obligations and all relations to all human Governments shall be held subordinate to this vow. This I make in the presence of God.'"

"It is not my duty to express my contempt for the man that could exact or take this oath. But I am not obliged to repose my confidence in a man so constituted that, living in this Republic, he would serenely vow his readiness at all times to abandon his family and betray his country. I will not appoint ALEXANDER GRANGER. And in this connection, while I make no pretense to technical learning in respect to what is good policy for this Church organization, I suggest that whoever ultimately prevails in the ecclesiastical controversy give prompt and serious consideration to the question, whether or not such an oath tends to give respectability to the Church, and whether the Church may justly expect a Court of the United States to long continue to foster a trust estate for the use of a religious organization whose conscience and intelligence does not cause an unconditional disavowal and abandonment of the obligation of this loyalty."

At Chattanooga, ten thousand crates of peaches were dumped into the Tennessee river by shippers, who were unable to obtain cars to move the fruit North, and could not dispose of it in the local market. The failure of the railroads to provide cars for the shipment of the fruit has practically bankrupted many growers. The roads are doing the best they can, but never before were they so heavily taxed. In several Georgia towns the people have met in Churches and sent up prayers for cars, but the more practical fruit-growers are cursing the railway managers by wire and mail; and one method seems to have been about as effective as the other.

THE last Kentucky Legislature—which was not remarkable for the good things that it did—is to be credited with at least one commendable act. That is an added provision to the law relating to the payment of taxes. Here it is—

"Section 4. Persons who have not, at least 60 days before the election at which they offer to vote, paid in full all state, county, municipal, district and school taxes due by them for the year previous to the one in which they offer to vote" are not hereafter to be allowed to vote. This is a good law, and it will have a tendency to make many people "honest" who have heretofore been in the habit of letting other people bear the public burden.

A REMEDY WORTH TRYING.

Robert Clark, the artist, tells this story: One day, while out walking with a friend of his, this friend complained of a toothache, and asked Mr. Clark what he could advise him to buy, as they were in front of a drugstore. "Why," said Mr. Clark, "the last time I had a toothache I went home and my wife kissed it away for me." After a moment's pause, his friend said, "Is your wife home now?"

Beautiful Beechwood.

There is no summer park in this section where such good vaudeville programs are given for so little money as at our own "Beautiful Beechwood." Each week the shows grow better. For this week, the famous necromancer, "Christopher," will be seen in "Modern Magical Wonders." Daly and O'Brien, that odd pair, have a comedy singing and dancing act that is first class; new illustrated songs. The new Kinodrome pictures will be, "Please Help the Blind," "History of a Pair of Trousers" and "Behind the Stage." Go out tonight and you will have an enjoyable evening. It is always cool at Beechwood.

Ruggles Campmeeting

Correspondence Public Ledger. RUGGLES CAMPGROUNDS, July 27th, 1906.

The second day of Campmeeting is now over and a very good one it has been. The weather is simply delightful, and this good fresh mountain air is being enjoyed by all and is proving very beneficial to some of the city folks' appetites from the way they are making provisions disappear.

The meetings have been good in attendance and interest as well. Mr. I. M. Lane led the early morning prayer service, the attendance of which doubled itself compared with the first morning.

At 10 o'clock Dr. Boring delivered one of the best sermons we have ever heard him preach. We have learned to look forward to Dr. Boring's sermons as one of the feasts of the campmeetings, and he never disappoints us.

At 1:30 o'clock the Children's Service took place, and at 2 o'clock the Mother's Meeting, which is considered one of the very best services that we have.

Dr. Baker, in charge of the Young Peoples' Service at 3 o'clock, is making them go with a vim that is agreeably surprising to us. These services are taken up a great deal with song, and the way the folks are singing under Dr. Baker's leadership is truly inspiring. He makes the people sing in spite of the proverbial frog that most people think they have in their throat when asked to sing.

Rev. William Jones preached tonight from the first Psalm and the sermon was a fitting close for the day's work. A large crowd attended and quite an interest was manifested in the service.

Dr. S. O. Royal of Cincinnati will arrive tomorrow and will be the Sunday preacher. Everything points to a big day.

Still the people come. The grounds are pretty well peopled now, and if they continue to come this will be a banner year in attendance and there is no reason why it should not be, for there is no place where the natural and spiritual conditions are more conducive to enjoyment than at Old Ruggles. J. H. R.

RUGGLES CAMPGROUNDS, July 29th.

Campmeeting is getting down to business. All the services are being well attended and the interest is good. We are having the best and most enthusiastic singing that we have ever had. Led on under the inspiring leadership of Dr. Baker the large chorus is making "His praise glorious" indeed. He is getting about everyone to sing, or to look as if they would like to sing anyway, as he tells them to.

The feature of Saturday's meetings was the night service, when our own Preacher, Rev. G. W. Bunton, preached. The largest crowd thus far was out to hear him. He preached on the subject, "The Power of Hope." He handled his subject in a masterly way, and many were the expressions of appreciation made at the close of the service.

We were awakened this Sunday morning by the patter of rain on the roof. The rain kept
